№ 116.

Warſaw, Octob. 31.

ON the 23d the King received a Courier from Vienna, with Advice, that the Preliminaries are ſettled for a Peace between the Emperor and France, which News his Majeſty cauſed to be notified immediately to the Primate and other Grandees of the Kingdom, to which it is of higheſt Importance; becauſe one of the Articles ſtipulates, That King Staniſlaus ſhall renounce his Pretenſions to the Crown of Poland, in favour of King Auguſtus. Nevertheleſs the Deputies in the Dyet, to oppoſe the Election of a Marſhal till the foreign Troops are gone, increaſe in Number as well as in Rumour; ſo that, on the 29th, when Poninski, the Director, was obliged to adjourn the Seſſion to this Day, he could not help concluding with this pathetick Demonſtration of his Sorrow for the diſtracted State of Affairs: 'I ſincerely lament, ſays he, the unhappy Fate of this Republick, in which we ſee LIBERTY, that precious Attribute, degenerate into Licentiouſneſs, when the Members ſeem ſo exaſperated one againſt another that they will not allow them to declare their Opinions. Thus behold the Dyet expiring like to a dying Man giving up his laſt Breath. Behold there the Tomb which deſerves no better Epitaph than Hic jacet Lex novitatibus confuſa, dicendi Libertas ſilentio deruta, activitas paſſivitate involuta languet & agonizat, i. e. Here lies the Law perplexed with Innovations; the Freedom of Speech buried in Silence; and the Power for Action languiſhes and expires under the Yoke of a paſſive Inactivity.'

Continuation of the Journal of the Dyet of Poland.

ON the 19th of October, Count Poninski, the Director of the Dyet, exhorted the Deputies in Oppoſition to conſider the King's Goodneſs and Complaiſance, and compare it with their own Behaviour at that very Time; and then he moved that they ſhould chuſe a Marſhal; but it was oppoſed by the Deputies, who complained of freſh Exactions from the Ruſſian Troops. Theſe ſtill demanded that the Troops ſhould be ſent away before they entered on Debates. Poninski deſired them to be ſatisfied with the Declarations that had been made by the King and the Empreſs of Ruſſia, till the Chamber of Deputies was ſettled for Buſineſs. At the ſame time he repreſented how much it was to be feared that ſuch an Oppoſition would be more prejudicial than advantageous to the Republick; becauſe it was clearly evident, that the Oppoſents were reſolved, that the Dyet ſhould come to nothing. M. Malackowski, the Deputy of Cracow, ſpoke upon this Occaſion, That the Deputies wiſhed well to the Dyet, but not to the holding of it under Arms; and that if the Ruſſian Troops came into Poland during the Marſhal Poninski's Direction, it was, by conſequence, his Buſineſs to find Ways and Means to procure their Departure. Poninski made his publick Proteſt againſt this Action, adjourned the Seſſion to next Day, and went out of the Houſe, after M. Malackowski had alſo publickly atteſted the Truth of what he had advanced.

On the 20th, at the Opening of the Seſſion, the Director repreſented to the Deputies, that half of the Time granted for the Dyet's Continuance, was already ſpent to no Purpoſe; and that their Deliberations were as like to be prejudiced by too long Delays as by too great Precipitation, and he exhorted them from that Moment to diſcover more Zeal, by determining to chuſe a Marſhal. M. Chlebowski, the Staroſt of Liva, oppoſed it, and complained, that there were no leſs than 1200 Ruſſians in his Staroſty, who exacted all Manner of Proviſions; and he declared, that he would not conſent to any thing till he had obtained Satisfaction in that Head. M. Szambecky, the Deputy of the Diſtrict of Warſaw, was of his Opinion; and M. Rzewin, the Staroſt of Owiczin, who had Grievances of the ſame Kind, made the ſame Declaration twice ſucceſſively. He proteſted alſo that he did not do it from a deſigned Reſolution to hinder the Voting, but only becauſe the Groans of the People rendered ſuch an Oppoſition neceſſary. M. Poninski remonſtrated, that this Oppoſition was unuſual, and that conſequently it was not to be allowed; becauſe the Chamber of the Deputies was not yet entered upon Buſineſs. The Deputies of Great Poland, and of the Palatinate of Ruſſia, informed the Houſe, that they had an Account from the Territories from which they were deputed, that, in Obedience to the Orders they had received from the King, all Manner of Exactions were ceaſed; and that they returned his Majeſty their Thanks for it. Others of the Deputies affirmed the ſame thing with regard to the Saxon Troops; but complained of the Ruſſians. A Deputy from Volhinia of the Court Party, objected to them, that perhaps the Ruſſians had not complied with the Orders they received, becauſe they ſaw the ill Succeſs of the Dyet. The Staroſt of Owiczin anſwered with ſome Warmth, The Ruſſian Troops have nothing to do with the Affairs of the Dyet, but ought to mind the Orders of their Generals better than they do at preſent. M. Benoe, the Deputy of Halicz, replied, that the Ruſſian Troops were too well acquainted with the Affairs of Poland, not to be attentive to the Deliberations of the Republick. M. Poninski then demanded, if the Opponents would conſent to join with the other Deputies, after freſh Orders were diſpatched to the Armies. The Deputies who had propoſed certain Alterations to be made in the Act of Evacuation, anſwered, that nothing was to be expected on their Part, before thoſe Alterations were made. Upon which the Director adjourned the Seſſion to next Day; but, before they ſeparated, M. Malackowski urged ſeveral Things to invalidate the Proteſt which M. Poninski had made againſt him the Day before, in order to wipe off the Reproach of his having connived at the introducing of the foreign Troops into Poland. There was great Diſputation and Wrangling upon this Occaſion; but ſeveral of the Deputies interpoſed, and ſilenced it.

On the 21ſt the Grievances from the Ruſſian Troops were again brought upon the Stage, and were the principal Subject of the Seſſion. M. Poninski declared thereupon to the Houſe, That he had talked of this Matter to the Miniſter Plenipotentiary of Ruſſia, who had declared to him, 'That the Orders ſent to the 'Ruſſian Troops to ceaſe their Exactions, were limitted 'only for 15 Days, in hopes that the Reſolution of 'the Empreſs of Ruſſia would, by that Time, come 'to hand; that the ſaid Reſolution was actually arriv'd, 'and conceived in Terms very favourable to the Cham'ber of the Deputies; but that as the ſaid Chamber 'was not yet entered upon Buſineſs, he was not qua'lified to conſer with it.' But neither this Intelligence, nor the Repreſentations with which it was back'd by ſeveral Deputies who were of more moderate Sentiments, made any Impreſſion upon the Minds of the oppoſite Party, inſomuch that they gave one another hard Words, when M. Poninski, to put an End to their Diſputes, adjourned the Seſſion to the Day following.

On the 22d, in Quality of Director, he gave the firſt Vote for electing a Marſhal on the Part of the Palatinate of Cracow; but a Deputy of Belsk oppoſed it, on Pretence of the Neceſſity of renewing their Inſtances to the King, that his Majeſty, before all Things, would take Care to render the Evacuation of the foreign Troops effectual. M. Poninski repreſented, that as ſoon as the Chamber of Deputies was agreed, and had choſe their Marſhal, all Things would anſwer according to their Deſires; and he exhorted the Deputy of Belsk, for the Sake of his Country, to deſiſt from his Oppoſition; but it being impoſſible to prevail with him, M. Poninski declared, That there was no other Courſe to be taken than to addreſs the King to find out other Ways and Means for ſettling the Affairs of the Nation; and then he adjourned the Seſſion to the next Day but one, viz. the 24th.

Glaſgow, Oct. 31. Yeſternight Alexander Cuningham of Craigends, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the Shire of Renfrew, was married to Mrs. Katharine Campbell (at her Houſe of Houſton) Relict of John Aird, late Provoſt of Glaſgow, one of the Coheireſſes of Andrew Campbell of Houſton, and of a Plantation in Jamaica, a Lady of Worth, Fortune, &c.

Edinburgh, Nov. 3. Thurſday laſt was ſolemnized all over this City and Suburbs, (in Honour of his Majeſty's Birth) with all imaginable Teſtimonies of Loyalty. The Croſs was curiouſly dreſs'd up in the Morning, and hard by it a ſpacious Theatre erected. Soon after, the Muſick Bells ſet a-ringing, which with Water-works, and the Parade of the Blue Gowns on the Royal Charity, entertained the City all Day long. At Noon the Caſtle (on which a new Standard had been erected for the firſt Time) gave the Royal Salute with thrice 7 Cannon, which were alternately anſwered with Regimental Volleys from General Sabine's Welſh Fuziliers in the Abbey-Court. Soon after my Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Town-Council, in their Robes, preceded by the City Officers, the Muſick, &c. followed by the Officers of the Train'd Bands, and attended by many Perſons of Diſtinction and others, march'd in Proceſſion to the Theatre, where his Majeſty's and other Healths were chearfully drank, at each a Volley from the City-Guard, whilſt the Muſick and Water-works plaid their Parts, and Fruits, Sweet-meats, &c. were thrown among a numerous Crowd. The Proceſſion returned thence to the Council-chamber, where the Royal Healths and many others were repeated, each under a Platoon from the City Company. The Captains, Lieutenants, and Enſigns of the Train'd Bands repaired to ſeparate Taverns, and ſpent the Night in Jollity; but in a ſpecial Manner the Corps of Lieutenants. Brigadier General Moyle had an elegant Entertainment at his Lodgings, where the Officers of General Sabine's Regiment and others, were ſplendidly regaled, and the Royal Healths went merrily round. The whole City and Suburbs was illuminated, in a ſpecial Manner the Lord Provoſt's Windows, and the Poſt Office. At 6, curious Fireworks of all Sorts were plaid off from the Croſs. There was a large Bonfire in the Abbey; another on the Caſtle, the Gariſon whereof was entertain'd by the Commandant. And Yeſterday the Caſtle gave a Round, on the glad Tidings of his Majeſty's Arrival.

Edinburgh, Nov. 4. 'Tis written from Dumbarton, that upon Thurſday laſt being his Majeſty's Birth-day, Capt. Robert Turnbull, the Lieutenant Governor of the Caſtle, made a handſome Entertainment in the Caſtle, to which he invited the neighbouring Gentlemen and Ladies young and old, where his Majeſty's Health, the Queen's, the Prince of Wales, the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, and all the Royal Family's, was drank in the beſt Wine, under a Diſcharge of all the great Guns; as was alſo, good Succeſs to his Majeſty's Councils and Armies, Health to the Duke of Argyle, General Wade, and all his Majeſty's Generals and other Friends, under ſeveral Huzza's of the jovial Armies: After Dinner the Ladies drank Tea with the Lieutenant Governor's Lady, and then joined in dancing Country and other Dances with the Gentlemen, where all manner of Joy and friendly Mirth was expreſs'd in the moſt agreeable Manner the whole Afternoon and Part of the Night, when all the Lieutenant Governor's Windows were filled with a vaſt Number of great Candles, a great Bonfire on the Top of the Caſtle Rock, where all his Majeſty's Company, and the King's Maſons who are repairing the Caſtle, were allowed a vaſt deal of ſtrong Ale, &c. to drink his Majeſty's and all the foreſaid Healths; and becauſe of the Coldneſs of the Weather, the Lieutenant Governor has alſo ordered an Addition of Fire and Candle to the Guard and Barracks.

This Day Sir James Ferguſſon of Kilkerren, Advocate, preſented his Majeſty's Letter to the Lords of Council and Seſſion, naming him one of their Lordſhips Number, in room of the Lord Juſtice Clerk, deceaſed.

Glaſgow, Oct. 30. This being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-day, was ſolemnized here with the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy, the City being beautifully illuminated, and the whole Nobility and Gentlemen of Diſtinction in the Place being invited by the Magiſtrates, went to a Theatre covered with a Carpet, at the Croſs, and drank the Healths of the King, Queen, Prince of Wales, Prince and Princeſs of Orange, and whole Royal Family, under the Diſcharges of the Fire Arms of the Hon. General Whitam's Regiment of Foot, and thereafter the whole Company pany repaired to the Town-House, where the above Healths and many loyal ones were drank, and the Night concluded with the utmost Joy and Gaiety.

LONDON.

Yesterday another Mail arrived from Holland, which brought Letters from Rome confirming the Discovery of a Conspiracy at Naples; but they don't agree as to the Particulars. Only they say, that several Letters have been intercepted from Mancini and his Accomplices, together with the Answers they received; and that the Messenger they employed to carry those Letters, was one Frascato a Taylor, who often went from Naples to Benevento, and was also apprehended, together with one Lavista a Doctor of Physick. They add, that Cardinal Acquaviva had the first Information of it, and gave Notice of it to the Court at Naples.

They write from Leghorn, that, by Order of the Court of Spain, they are preparing a Train of Artillery there, which is to consist of 100 Cannon, several thousand Bombs, a great Quantity of Mortars, 6000 Bullets, and a vast Store of other Ammunition, for some unknown Purpose. The Earl of Nottingham is arrived at Florence, and has had the usual Present of Refreshments from the Grand Duke, besides one of his Coaches to attend him.

Letters of Octob. 8. from Constantinople, say, that Ismael the new Grand Vizier made his publick Entry into that City on the 4th, with great Splendor, and the loud Acclamations of the People, who hope for a happy Turn in the Affairs of that Empire, under the Management of a prime Minister so generally esteemed as he is.

Those of the 13th Instant N. S. from Germany, say, that the French Minister who negotiated the Preliminaries of Peace between the Emperor and France, is returned to Vienna; that a French Courier has brought back those Preliminaries signed by the King's own Hand; that the Imperial and French Troops on the Rhine and the Moselle, are all marching off towards their Winter-Quarters, except a few left for the Guard of some Posts upon the Rhine; and that Count Seckendorf has been magnificently regaled at Triers by the Marshal de Coigny, with others of the Imperial Generals. 'Tis said, that 24 Battalions, and 21 Squadrons, including the Garison of Luxemburg, and 14 Companies of Dragoons, are on their March to take up their Winter-Quarters in the Austrian Netherlands, in Conformity to the Barrier Treaty; and that Count Seckendorf who is to command them, with the Title of Commander in Chief in the Austrian Netherlands, will quarter at Brussels.

The Burghers of Hamburgh have at length empowered their Grand Council, and that of the Elders, to settle the Accommodation betwixt the Regency of that City and the King of Denmark, on such Terms as they shall judge most proper.

They tell us from the Hague, that a learned Gentleman of the first Rank, has composed the Reverse for a Medal to the Honour of the celebrated Dr. Boerhaave, Professor of Physick at the University of Leyden, and another for a Medal for M. Chicoyneau, first Physician to the King of France; both of them the greatest Men of this Age in that Science. And their Medals are to be struck by the Chevalier Ferdinand Urbain, the famous Engraver, who heretofore struck the Medals of those eminent Physicians, Malpighi, Bagliti, Friend, &c.

Last Week died of the Small-Pox at Carlisle, Mrs. Graham, Wife to the Hon. William Graham, Esq; of Plattin near Drogheda in Ireland, and Daughter to the late Lord Lansdown.

They write from Worcester, that on Gunpowder Treason Day, the Corporation in their Formalities repaired to the Cathedral, and heard a very suitable Sermon to the Day, preached by the Rev. Mr. Meadowcourt.

Yesterday Se'nnight died at Ipswich, aged 85, Mr. Cooper Gravenor, the eldest Portman of that Corporation, of which he had been several Times Bailiff.

We hear that Edward Simpson, Dr. of Laws, who was one of the Fellows of Trinity-Hall in Cambridge, is elected Master of that Society, in the room of Sir Nathaniel Lloyd, who resigned.

On Thursday last the Rev. Mr. Bate, M. A. was inducted into the Rectory of Sutton in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester, a Living worth 200 l. per Annum, vacant by the Death of the last Incumbent.

Yesterday William Blackwell, for robbing Colonel de Romaines at Paddington, and ravishing his Maid Servant, and Elizabeth Armstrong, for the Murder of Patrick Darling, were executed at Tyburn. Blackwell was hung in Chains between Paddington and Kilbourn.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drops For ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS,

That have been Sold so many Years, and with such uncommon Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; but, since Mr. Parry's Decease, are now sold only by Mr. Read for 3 s. 6 d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. N. B. You turn in just by the Mitre Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.

They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing:

And all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consumptions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very little Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious Humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, moisten, enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumptions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Straitness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when feared. They are also exceeding restorative and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitutions, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many severely troubled with Night and Morning; also for the Chin-Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; and are so pleasant, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Confinement.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (therefore they defy the faint Efforts of any Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, are therefore made Publick for Common Good.

SIR, York, June 9, 1735.

I Should be wanting in Gratitude to you, did I not take an Opportunity of making my thankful Acknowledgments, since, by the Blessing of God, upon using your Injection, I am at last got out of the dreadful Labyrinth in which for seven or eight Years I had been involv'd (tho' I took a great many Medicines to no Purpose) by a Weakness and involuntary Emission; but I am so alter'd for the better that I may say I am Young again, being perfect in Health and Strength, and perfectly cur'd.

Go on therefore, good Sir, and may the like Success attend all your laudable Undertakings, and may all your Patients prove grateful. If this can be serviceable to my Fellow Sufferers, who have plung'd themselves into the like Dilemma, make them sensible of my Success. I am,

SIR,

To the Author of the Specifick Injection or Lotion.

Your sincere and affectionate Friend, And much oblig'd humble Servant, A.

The above Medicine is sold at Mr. John King's Pulse-shop in the Poultry, near Stocks-Market; Mr. T.
